Sycamore Community Unit School District 427 proudly announces three representatives selected to participate in the Illinois' Thirty Second Statewide Young Authors Conference. The Conference will be held at Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois, Saturday, May 20, 2006.

The representatives are:

Kailey Mulligan, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Craig Mulligan, a second grader from Southeast Elementary School.

Kennedy Mason, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Douglas Mason, a fifth grader from North Elementary School.

Sarah Fischer, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Mark Fischer, an eighth grader from Sycamore Middle School.

Many students participated in the program district-wide. Each student that participated received a Certificate of Award at their respective building.

The three students, selected by members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee (CAC), will have the opportunity to meet with noted children's authors and have their manuscripts on display at the State Conference. All three students will receive State Certificates. The Young Authors Program was sponsored by the local Citizens' Advisory Committee as one of its major yearly activities.
