Family Service Agency
Strengthening Individuals & Families

Saturday, November 4, 2017

Are you interested in cooking or baking? Family Service Agency's Big Brothers Big Sisters program can showcase your skills and talents at a cooking competition on Saturday, November 4th. Make 200 sample sizes of your most amazing appetizers, entree, side dish or dessert for the public to delight in.

By participating in Cooking for Kids' Sake, you are helping raise funds for kids in the Big Brothers Big Sisters program who have a positive adult role model in their life through Lunch Buddies and Bigs In Blue.

General Information:

- There is a $10 registration fee for all chefs.
- Each chef is asked to prepare a minimum of 200 sample size servings of their favorite recipe! It could be any of the following: appetizer, side dish, entrée or dessert. A serving is considered to be 1-2 forkfuls or bites.
- The event is from 5-7 pm. Set up for your dish and table begins at 4pm. Awards will be given at 6:45 pm.
